IS NOT A WAR ON RUSSIA

Struggle Against Bolsheviki
Is Only a Pacifying
Influence

STEPHEN PICHON
OF FRANCE SAID

It Is Necessary to Prevent Russia Becoming Ally
of Germany

Paris, Wednesday, March 26.—Stephen Pichon, foreign minister, said this afternoon in the Chamber of Deputies that the struggle against the bolsheviki was not a declaration of war against Russia. His address, which was made in reply to interpellations made on Tuesday by Marcel Cachin and Ernest Lafont, was bitterly criticized by socialist deputies and for a time the greatest disorder prevailed in the chamber.

After pointing out that the allied policy in Russia was not a "war," but a "pacifying" policy, M. Pichon said:

"The Russian question is vital, as it is necessary in the interest of peace to bar the westward route of bolshevism. If we do not act, the day Russia reawakens she will find herself the ally of Germany." The session was suspended from 5:35 to 6 o'clock, when the socialists renewed their attacks on the speaker. During M. Pichon's address, Premier Clemenceau entered the chamber for the first time since he was wounded by Emile Cottin on Feb. 19.

M. Moutet, a socialist, one of the attorneys for Joseph Caillaux, who is under charges of treason, suggested during the socialist attack on M. Pichon that "it was necessary to oppose one ideal or another and not to dodge that of President Wilson."

He was charged by Georges Bonnet of lacking respect for Mr. Wilson, but President Deschanel interjected: "No one here lacks respect for President Wilson."

Turbulent scenes continued until the close of the session at 7:30 o'clock.
